

Lesser Slave Lake
Economic Alliance

November 23, 2009

News Release

The Lesser Slave Lake Economic Alliance is releasing the first of a series of articles on its current year project activities. The purpose of the series of articles is to inform your readership of various economic development initiatives initiated by the Alliance.

The article, photographs and logos are available for download by the region's media at www.lslea.ca. The information is available in both the Mac and PC operating systems.

Please ensure credit of the accompany photographs to the credit information provided.

If you have any questions or would like to provide comment on the series of articles please contact the Lesser Slave Lake Economic Alliance at 780-523-6563 or by email at www.lslea.ca.